Please be as precise as possible.	The damage and building that has gone on in the Tyldesley area over the past 10 years has had a dramatic, detrimental effect on the surrounding area. The roads around here are in a terrible condition and rush hour traffic is horrendous. The building of another 1100 houses is just another impact upon the air quality and traffic congestion in this area. The implications on schools, doctors, care homes dentists which are already struggling to cope with the numbers does not bare thinking about. We would be losing some beautiful scenery and nature so that greedy people can become even richer. We will never get this land back. This proposal must be stopped.
