Please be as precise as possible.	Another 1100 houses with the 1000 to 2000 cars that will no doubt come with the house buyers would bring chaos to an already extremely busy road network, also the resultant pollution from so many vehicles would be extremely harmful to the air quality. The loss of greenbelt would be detrimental to the people already living in the as there would be no green space left. It is already virtually impossible to see a doctor so an extra 2 to 3 thousand people would put a great strain on the already stretched health services and schools in the area.
