Please be as precise as possible.	The local infrastructure is inadequate to support this development. Roads, transport, schools, doctors are already suffering form over development in this area especially with the development to the left of Parr Bridge . This development together wit the proposed development to the south of Leigh Road near to RHS will result in making it possible to access the current infrastructure facilities mentioned above. Has anybody on any of the the committes considering this development tried to catch a bus during rush hour or tried to access the M60 at Worsley ; the whole area is already grid locked, parents can"t get the schools of their choice, doctors surgeries have a 3 week waiting list. Salford Royal A&E recently had a 9 hour waiting time!!!! 1100 house means approx 3300 extra people and 2200 extra cars. Chaos.
