Please be as precise as possible.	Excessive traffic already in this area, a small accident anywhere from Ellenbrook onto the motorway and the area is gridlocked for hours. Bridgewater road already a cut through at peak times which is unreasonable for a residential area and unsafe for children getting access to the playing fields. The guided busway is not going to resolve the traffic problems as it has not made any difference so far. Ever decreasing environment for the wildlife, deer are regularly seen on the fields along with many varieties of birds and barn owls.
