Without LAWS to level this up and protect high streets there is no point in wasting money on town centres and local shops. Inequality and prosperity are best tackled through a first class education system, easier ways to open your own business or make money from your own ideas and not by importing rich Southerners or foreigners. You can't talk about the environment and green space whilst you are destroying it and building on it! You create healthier communities by having antisocial behaviour, crime and drug free areas with a mixed housing need of legal housing that is sound-proofed, and by having small detached one bedroomed homes with small gardens rather than more and more expensive shoes boxes built on top of each other.
