It is home to numerous species of wildlife which I witness daily when walking my dogs. This includes bats, voles, rabbits, birds of prey, foxes and aquatic wildlife. The proposal states the new primary school may not be a requirement. As a mother of a child who is soon to start reception at primary school, we are in dire need of new primary school provisions. Personally, I believe there should be a new community primary school for all faiths, and not just an extension to a C of E primary school in
